Burke, Hess
Are Heard at Rally on Cuba

Admiral Arleigh Burke and Karl Hess, Goldwater campaign aide, spoke to a Cuban freedom rally yesterday in the first of a series of meetings planned here this week as the Organization of American States begins debating sanctions against Cuba.

"Most of our problems are not capable of a real solution, they keep reappearing," Burke said. He cautioned against expecting "too much from the OAS meeting."

"They may not take every step we'd like to see," he said, "but they will do something."

Hess brought greetings from Sen. Goldwater, who, "wants to express great enthusiasm for meetings like this."

He said that the Senator's views on Cuba were well known and were the one part of the GOP platform "which went through with virtually no debate."

The rally, held at the home of W. A. Fraser of 3001 Audubon ter. nw., was organized by the Cuban American Freedom Committee.
